Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada: Balancing travel facilitation and the protection of Canadians

IRCC's objectives:

Maximize benefits of immigration, facilitate trade and commerce

Promote the successful integration of newcomers

Maintain the security of Canadians and protect public health and safety

Facilitation and protection are viewed by IRCC as complementary, rather than contradictory, objectives

The more secure our immigration system, the better Canada is able to welcome newcomers and visitors, to the enrichment of our economy and of our social and cultural landscape

IRCC: a mandate for safety and security

- IRCC has mandated authorities during and after migration
- Potential health, safety, security threats at each stage of the migration continuum
- Post-migration, citizenship and passports may be revoked for national security reasons

The intelligence collection, security screening and national security advice provided by CSIS helps IRCC fulfill its security mandate. Together, our organizations work to address threats to Canada.

Hi [redacted]

That sounds good. I suspect that we won't be finished until later in the week or early next week as well.

Thanks again,

Hi [redacted] – no, it isn't done. Getting close, but we are still working in more examples. Also, and more to the point, my ADM has been [redacted] and hasn't had a chance to review. He is [redacted] and I will get it in front of him then. With any luck, we can maybe get you something solid later in the week...

Further to our recent meeting on the proposed joint briefing to the Minister of IRCC.

We are in the process of drafting a short, introductory deck from the IRCC perspective as discussed at the meeting.

Is the Service deck completed? Can we get a copy [redacted] next week?

Thanks,
